Areas to be massaged/draping: The areas to be massaged may include the following: head, face, neck, chest, stomach, inner thighs, legs, arms, feet, gluteals, back, etc. Depending on the type of massage you receive, these areas may be uncovered in whole or in part to allow the therapist to properly perform the massage. Some massages will require you to be fully disrobed. We will always use the maximum amount of draping practical for the type of massage you are receiving unless you request otherwise. This can be very minimal for some types of massages. Areas that will not be massaged: We will never massage or intentionally touch the breasts of a female without a therapeutic reason and separate written consent. Under no circumstances will the genitals or anus be massaged or intentionally touched. If there is any other area you never want massaged, please list it below.

(initial here) Improper Conduct/Policies: Hawaiian Experience Spa provides professional spa treatments only. Although some treatments may be quite exotic, they are not sexual in any way. If you are looking for a sexual service in any way, please look elsewhere. We have ZERO tolerance for improper conduct no matter how subtle. If any client improperly touches a therapist, makes sexual or suggestive remarks, intentionally exposes themselves in an improper manor, or displays any other type of sexual or other improper behavior, or makes the therapist uncomfortable in anyway; 1)The treatment will be immediately stopped, 2)The client will be responsible to make full payment, 3)The client will not be allowed back in the spa, 4)Other action will be taken as needed which may include filing a police report. By receiving services at the spa you are agreeing to all spa policies as posted on our website, and understand that payment is due when you receive your service.

Your rights and responsibilities during your service: Your spa service is just that, your service. Please tell us anything that you need at anytime during the service and we will do our best to accommodate you. For you own safety, you must immediately tell the therapist if anything we are doing causes you pain or is making you uncomfortable in any way. At any time during the service you may tell the therapist to stop the treatment and he/she will immediately do so. Please list anything else about your medical condition not listed elsewhere or anything else you want us to know: _____
